FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

NASBA CENTER FOR THE PUBLIC TRUST ANNOUNCES WINNERS OF 2015 STUDENT VIDEO COMPETITION
Over $4,000 in Cash Prizes Awarded to This Year’s Winning Teams

NASHVILLE, TENN. (April 9, 2015)—The NASBA Center for the Public Trust (CPT) is pleased to announce the winners of its Sixth Annual Ethics in Action Viral Video Competition, sponsored by the Dean Institute for Corporate Governance and Integrity.

The competition was open to all U.S. college, junior college and university students. Students were encouraged to submit creative videos showcasing their perspectives on the importance of ethical leadership in business. Students entered videos in two categories: Short films (2-4 minutes) and Commercials (1 minute or less).

This year’s competition generated video entries from 35 teams, hailing from 11 different colleges and universities: Colorado Mesa University, Colorado State University, Florida State College at Jacksonville, Florida State University, Liberty University, Lipscomb University, University of Colorado at Colorado Springs, University of New Mexico, University of Miami, Utah State University and Texas A&M.

Four winners were selected by a panel of expert judges, while over 2,000 public votes were cast to select four different winners for the viewer’s choice awards.

Short Film Category Winners (2-4 Minutes)

- 1st Place Grand Prize ($1,000) – Should One Tweet Be Worth a Career?
  School: Utah State University
  Team Members: Christopher Patty, Amelia Mann, Benjamin Kiser and Jacob Patty

- Runner Up ($500) – The Consequences of Insider Trading (The Tragedy of Mr. Ethan Anderson)
  School: University of Colorado, Colorado Springs
  Team Members: Jenna Danielson, Sae Ichihara and Asja De Jong

- Viewer’s Choice 1st Place ($700) – Discrimination in the Workplace
  School: Lipscomb University
  Team Members: Lorena Djuknic, Carolyn Springsteen and Michael Oruma

- Viewer’s Choice Runner Up ($300) – Gold Bricks
  School: Colorado State University
  Team Members: James Menssen, Cheryl Stoutenburgh, Matthew Coffaro and Kara Lanckriet

Commercial Category Winners (1 Minute or Less)

- 1st Place Grand Prize ($800) – Bribery and Corruption
  School: Utah State University
  Team Members: Preston Keeling, Eliza Thacker and Sarah Keating
• Runner Up ($400) – *Words Hurt Too
  School: Lipscomb University
  Team Members: Megan Grant and Tiera Lanham

• Viewer’s Choice 1st Place ($500) – *Social Media in the Workplace
  School: Florida State University
  Team Members: Alex Nugent and Casey Riley

• Viewer's Choice Runner Up ($200) – *Ethical Products
  School: University of Colorado, Colorado Springs
  Team Member: Matt Langenbahn

Congratulations to all of this year's participants and prize winners. Due to the high quality of video submissions, the video judging process was extremely difficult. The NASBA CPT applauds everyone who created a video and demonstrated why ethical leadership is so important in business.

CLICK HERE to view all of this year's short film entries.
CLICK HERE to view all of this year's commercial entries.

To learn more about the NASBA Center for the Public Trust (CPT), visit: thecpt.org.

About NASBA Center for the Public Trust
The NASBA Center for the Public Trust (CPT) is a non-profit organization whose mission is to champion the public trust by advancing ethical leadership in business, institutions and organizations. www.thecpt.org.

###